On Tuesday Sept 18th we have a speaker on Compassionate Care with Kathy, who will also be playing Bingo starting at 11am. Plan to come and have a good time.

Let's not forget to welcome Fall on Sept 22nd. My how time fly's by.

Our September birthdays are; Cathy Santos, Ernie Seagraves, Marilyn Bere, Nancy Hartmann, Mary Benko, Camille Herman, Judy Reisel, Karen Thompson, Jessie Kaulfers, Rosemarie Baker, Buck Evans, Marie Peck, Dorothy Case and Carol Brandt.

HAMLIN NEWS

Grandparents' Day

The Hamlin Senior Center celebrated Grandparents' Day on Friday, August 10th. Everyone had a nice time and we loved having fun with the children! Vita Martel proudly inroduced her great grand-daughters, Skyla and Haley. Ray Naholnick also was beaming with joy sharing his great grandson Austin. The kids took part playing bingo, doing sand art, working on a puzzle, playing dominoes and won all of our hearts learning to sing “You Are My Sunshine” with Andy Anderson. The kids said they had a great time and will see us next year! -Becky

WOODSTOCK DAY

On Friday, August 17th, the Hamlin Seniors enjoyed Woodstock Day! Four lucky volunteers took part in the Rad vs. Scad balloon game. Each team had four psychedelic balloons to sweep around a course. The team that completed the task first won. We also enjoyed the music by “Windfall”, food symbolizing the theme and the Rainbow Sherbet definitely was a hit. A couple of seniors shared their thoughts about the hippie age and friends who lived the real Woodstock experience on August 15-18, 1969. Great fun and great memories!

The Hawley and Hamlin Senior Centers shared a day of fun on Friday, July 20th at Lake Genero Picnic Grove! The weather was exceptionally beautiful and the atmosphere was electric throughout the day. We started with coffee and donuts while a couple people were fishing and a group of seniors were playing pinnacle. Two of our favorite seniors, Fred Kitchen and Dante' Giamarcco played their accordions providing for a festive environment throughout the day! The highlight was "Elvis" (Jeff Krick) who rocked the house with his talent and who demonstrated a pleasant and outgoing personality as well. We also celebrated the 100th Birthday of Hawley Senior, Josephine Tramutola with her family! The day also featured some special guests including our County Commissioners, Brian Smith, Joe Adams and Wendell Kay, Andrew Seder of Senator Lisa Baker's office, Gina Ehrhardt from Representative Mike Peifer's office. Joe addressed the group along with Mary Ursich, Administrator of WCAAA and Pat Perkins. The Trails End camp kids volunteered their time and a few Hawley Rotary volunteers helped to serve and deliver the plated food to everyone and we were grateful for their service. We also wish to thank our Senior volunteers and Vickie Bickle who helped set up, manage the raffle tables and manage the check-in table. Thank you everyone! Kudos to Lu Seagraves, Senior Center Manager for Hawley! She did an excellent job coordinating this wonderful event for all of us to enjoy! I personally enjoyed the Hamlin Line Dancers doing their dances and motivating the Trails End Kids, as well as others, to participate in the line dancing! The picnic was a first time event for me and I don't think anyone throws a better picnic than WCAAA. I can't wait until next year!! By: Becky Klepadlo

What a groovy time we had celebrating this iconic anniversary! The special guest speaker was Duke Devlin. Duke came from Texas to attend the concert in 1969 and still lives in the area today. Thanks to all who came to the center embracing the spirit of the 60s by dressing in beads, flowers and tie-dye. Many enjoyed the showing of "Woodstock: 3 Days of Peace & Music" documentary concert film. Ten Home Safety Tips

Seniors are involved in more than 2.3 million accidents in their homes each year. While many seniors prefer to live independently, most homes are poorly designed to meet their needs. Approximately 7,000 adults 65 and older die in such accidents annually. Falls are the number one safety risk for older adults – nearly one third of the senior population falls each year with 70% of falls occurring at home. Older adults need to take extra safety precautions due to physical changes that occur during the aging process, such as declining vision, hearing, sense of touch and smell, and bone density loss. These factors increase the risk of injury inside the home.

Here are the top 10 home safety tips every senior and caregiver should know:

1. Remove all scatter rugs, repair frayed carpet, tape or tack down loose carpet edges.
2. Arrange furniture to allow adequate space for safe walking between and within all rooms.
3. When using oxygen, do not smoke or use an open flame.
4. Do not overload circuits – unplug appliances when not in use.
5. Wear close-fitting sleeves to prevent spills and burns that could happen with loose, long sleeves.
6. Clean up spills immediately.
7. Use a step stool or reacher to reach high shelves – do not stand on chairs or stools.
8. Place safety strips or a non-skid mat in bathtub/shower and install grab bars – do not use soap dishes or towel racks for support when sitting or standing.
9. Keep closet doors and drawers closed to prevent bruises or tripping.
10. Keep walking aids within reach and keep a nightlight on or flashlight within reach of your bed.
